

Child Life Publications &amp; Recommended Resources	Pricing
	Member	Non Member
The Handbook of Child Life (New in 2009!)            Edited by R. Thompson (2009)            This book addresses the most important aspects of the practice of child life. The book is geared toward an audience beyond the introductory level and includes information on the state of the art in each chapter covered. Wherever possible, the book demonstrates application of the contents in practice through case studies. The goal of this text is to assist in this process, drawing upon the expertise of leading figures in the field to help provide child life specialists, and other allied health professionals, with the knowledge and skills they will need to accomplish this important task.	$45.00	$55.95
Child Life Beyond the Hospital (2008)            Each chapter in Child Life Beyond the Hospital is authored by one or more child life specialists with experience working in a particular setting outside of the traditional children's hospital. Whether you are preparing to embark on a new career outside of the hospital, or merely keeping abreast of current trends in the field, Child Life Beyond the Hospital will prove an interesting read that documents the ongoing expansion of the child life profession into new practice arenas.	$48.00	$55.00
Child Life in Hospitals: Theory and Practice            By Thompson and Stanford (1981)            This book provides a comprehensive discussion of the child life profession. Topics include: program management and design; clinical techniques and guidelines; student supervision; and the relationship of child life to other disciplines.	$48.00	$60.00
Directory of Child Life Programs (2006)            This edition includes over 400 child life programs. Detailed information on staffing is provided as well as extensive information on internships. Indexed for easy use.	$30.00	$45.00
A Child in Pain, How to Help, What To Do            by Dr. Leora Kuttner (1999)            An indispensable guide for staff and parents who want to help when a child is hurting. This comprehensive book provides practical examples and guidelines in managing acute pain episodes, as well as recurring and chronic pain, and enables staff and parents to bring this knowledge into the hospital, doctor's office or to the home. Also included is valuable information on medications, their uses, benefits and risks.	$25.00	$35.00
A Pediatric Bill of Rights (1991)  Spanish Pediatric Bill of Rights (2003) Also Available!            This 12-page brochure presents a bill of rights for children and adolescents, one for parents, and a list of family responsibilities. Its clear, simple language and large type make it an ideal handout for patients and families.	$2.00	$3.00

Pricing

	Member $30.00	Non Member $45.00
Anthology of Child Life Focus (2005)            This publication contains issues of the Child Life Focus articles from the Child Life Council Bulletin newsletter. It covers June 1999 through Spring 2007, 43 articles in all. Anthology of Child Life Focus features topics, programs and initiatives directly related to personal and collective practices in child life. Copyright 2007. Recommended reference in studying for the Child Life Professional Certification Examination. An updated edition of "Anthology" is currently in the works and will include all articles from June 1999 through Spring 2009. The new edition should be available for purchase by the end of 2009
Child Life Council Activity Recipe Book (1998)            Contains activities for diversion and intervention provided by our members.	$16.00	$20.00
Coping in Young Children: Early Intervention Practices to Enhance Adaptive Behavior and Resilience            By Zeitlin and Williamson (1994)            The author describes an intervention frame of reference that helps children learn to cope more effectively. Likewise it supports families in their efforts to expand coping resources for managing the challenges of daily living and facilitating their children's development.	$40.00	$50.00
Family-Centered Care for Children Needing Specialized Health And Developmental Services            This resources identified and describes the original elements of family-centered care and provides examples of how this approach to care is being implemented. Includes checklists and information about related organizations. Recommended reference in studying for the Child Life Professional Certification Examination.	$20.00	$25.00
Guidelines for the Development of Child Life Programs (1997)            A must-have reference for child life specialists in any stage of career development, the 4th edition of Guidelines features new and improved content in nearly every subject area. A greatly-expanded appendices section offers more than twice as many references as the previous edition. Benefit from the knowledge and experience of some of the top experts in the field! Recommended reference in studying for the Child Life Professional Certification Examination.	$30.00	$45.00
Helping Children Cope With Stress            By Brenner (1984)            This book provides much of the information needed to help children deal with stress. The author describes the spectrum of stresses children face, the specific coping strategies children develop in different situations, and distinguishes the healthy from the self-destructive ones.	$24.00	$30.00
How to Help Children Through a Parent's Serious Illness            By K. McCue (1994)            In this supportive, practical guide, child life specialist and Past CLC President, Kathleen McCue, explains the needs of children who have a seriously ill parent. Child life principles are used to guide teachers, parents and other caregivers in helping these children face mental and emotional stresses.	$14.00	$18.00

Pricing

	Member	Non Member
Making Ethical Decisions in Child Life Practice (2000) Presents principles of professional ethics, the CLC code of ethics, and their application to 10 hypothetical case scenarios to help professionals analyze and resolve ethical dilemmas in child life practice.	$16.00	$20.00
Meeting Children's Psychosocial Needs By Rollins, Bolig and Mahan (2005). Many healthcare professionals are gaining increasing appreciation and education on the importance of humanizing the healthcare experience by meeting the psychosocial needs of children and their families. However, today's financially-driven healthcare climate threatens to counteract some of this progress. Integrating current research and theory, Meeting Children's Psychosocial Needs Across the Healthcare Continuum examines the significant changes that have occurred recently in healthcare services for children, and how these changes affect children's psychosocial needs. Recommended reference in studying for the Child Life Professional Certification Examination.	$59.00	$65.00
Official Documents of the Child Life Council (2002) Completely revised in 2002, important professional documents: Mission, Vision, Values and Operating Principles; Code of Ethical Responsibility; Child Life Competencies; Standards of Clinical Practice; Standards for Academic and Clinical Preparation Programs; and Position Statements on Child Life in Healthcare Settings, in Rehabilitation, and in professional certification.	$16.00	$20.00
Program Review Guidelines (2003) A tool designed by the Child Life Council for self-evaluation and peer review of child life programs.	$20.00	$25.00
Psychosocial Care of Children in Hospitals: A Clinical Practice Manual (CLC Best Seller) by L. Gaynard, et al.; (1990) Details the principles, guidelines, protocols, and practices of a comprehensive, experimental child life program	$28.00	$35.00
Psychosocial Research on Pediatric Hospitalization and Health Care by Thompson (1985) A review of more than 300 research studies published since 1965. Topics include responses to hospitalization and health care, effects of separation, impact of hospital environment, and the value of play and preparation.	$50.00	$60.00
Study Guide for the Child Life Professional Certification Examination (2003-2009) ATTENTION: If you are planning to take the SPRING 2010 OR A LATER ADMINISTRATION of the Certification Exam, please note that a new edition of the Study Guide will be available through the CLC Bookstore beginning in November 2009. The updated Study Guide will reflect recent revisions to the Exam Content Outline, which are effective beginning in 2010. This guide contains references, study and test-taking strategies, sample questions with answers explained, a 50-question practice test and much more. Recommended reference in studying for the 2009 Child Life Professional Certification Examination. Copyright 2004.	$15.00	$22.00

